

Direct Energy™

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	System Analyst, IS
Business Unit:	Information Systems
Department:	Information Systems, Western Region
Work Location:	Calgary, AB
Full-time/Part-time:	FTE
Effective Date:

Primary Focus:

The incumbent will report to the Business Unit IS Director. The incumbent will facilitate the application and exploitation of information technology that supports increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of the Western Region business staff. This involves the reconfiguration of applications to changing business requirements; the use of productivity tools and report writers, and the ongoing support and maintenance of existing applications and integration thereof.

Accountabilities:

- Facilitate the application and exploitation of information technology.
- Reconfigure applications to the changing business requirements.
- Efficient use of productivity tools and report writers.
- Support and maintenance of existing applications and integration

Skills & Qualifications:

- Computer science degree or equivalent.
- Recognized as an expert in a chosen area, with a disciplined and professional approach.
- Demonstrated ability to apply strong lateral and analytical thinking skills.
- Has capacity to define a problem, select pertinent information, formulate hypothesis and draw conclusions.
- Good knowledge of and proven experience in the energy sector, preferably in a large volume retail and/or wholesale sales & marketing business.
- Experience working with complex technical architectures and infrastructures.
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills with knowledge of Excel functions, macros and reports using an Oracle external data source.
- Experience using SQL, Visual Basic, Crystal Reports and relational database models.
- Extensive experience developing business requirements and definitions
- Proven track record of implementing business requirement and definitions.